

A Musical Tribute to Zubeen Garg

– Pranami Bhattacharya

A cultural evening dedicated to the music and legacy of Zubeen Garg was held on September 20, 2026, at the Assam Association of Alberta Hall. Organized by Mayabini, the musical band from Calgary, the event brought together members of the Assamese community to perform Zubeen Garg's songs, along with other popular Assamese songs, as a heartfelt tribute to the beloved singer and musician. The performances reflected the deep appreciation and affection the community holds for his music and contribution to Assamese culture.
